Using Contraceptive Security Indicators to Inform Advocacy

Suzy Sacher, John Snow, Inc. (JSI)

Advance Family Planning Partners Meeting, March 2013
Objectives of this Presentation

• Introduce a tool for measuring contraceptive security (CS)
• Share country-level and global findings
• Identify how CS Indicators can support advocacy work
• Introduce CS Indicators resources
Contraceptive security exists when every person is able to choose, obtain and use quality, affordable contraceptives whenever she/he needs them.
Reproductive Health Commodity Security Framework
Overview of CS Indicators

5 key areas:

- finance
- policies
- commodities
- coordination & leadership
- supply chain

• Key informant survey of ~ 40 countries
  (USAID missions & USAID DELIVER PROJECT offices, Ministries of Health, UNFPA, USAID cooperating agencies)

• About to start 5th annual round of data collection
How are CS Indicators used?

- Build local capacity to monitor progress toward CS.
- Help set advocacy priorities and highlight focal areas for interventions.
- Emphasize importance of CS for better FP program outcomes.
- Compare regions, countries, and trends over time.

Your Role with CS Indicators

• Help monitor CS Indicators with the CS Committee
• Use for evidence-based advocacy priorities & messages
• Share with partners
• Encourage in-country stakeholders to use & adapt indicators to fit their monitoring needs
• Provide feedback
  – How can you use CS Indicator information?
  – How can we encourage its use?
  – How can we make the information user-friendly?
